

UNIT 10

Donovan

Across

- 1 Characteristic pattern of behavior or disposition to feel and act
- 6 This kind of control believes that your life is influenced by outside factors
- 9 One's feelings of high or low self worth
- 10 Collection of feels of a boy toward his father regarding his mother
- 11 Giving priority to one's own goals over a group
- 13 A patient relaxes and says whatever comes to mind
- 14 Voice of our moral compass
- 15 This kind of test is developed by testing a pool of items and then selecting those that discriminate between groups
- 19 Reservoir of images derived from universal species experiences
- 20 Giving priority to the group's goals over one's own
- 22 _____ Perspective is heavily influenced by Freud
- 23 These trait dimensions include the CANOE
- 24 The Freudian Period where pleasure centers on the mouth, usually 0-18 months
- 25 The answer to the question "Who am I?" in the Humanistic perspective
- 26 Banishing anxiety from consciousness
- 27 This kind of control believes you control your own fate
- 28 Operates on the reality principle, wants to gratify the id through realistic ways

Down

- 1 Attempt to define personality in terms of stable and enduring patterns
- 2 Process of fulfilling your potential
- 3 Attitude of total acceptance toward another person according to Rogers
- 4 What happens if a persons pleasure seeking energies are stuck in a stage
- 5 In contemporary psychology, this is assumed to be the center of personality, the organizer of our thoughts, feelings, actions etc
- 7 Retreating into an earlier form of development
- 8 This personality theory came about in the 1960s
- 12 Albert Bandura proposed this theory in which our traits interact with situations
- 16 Attributing threatening impulses to others in order to protect oneself
- 17 A personality test such as Rorschach that provides stimuli to that will make people project inn dynamics
- 18 People who fall on this end of one spectrum in trait theory tend to be sociable and outgoing
- 21 Alfred Adler and Karen Horney believed childhood had social not sexual stages as Freud proposed
- 27 Unconscious psychic energy that wants to satisfy through immediate gratification