

The Bill of Rights and 14th Amendment A Review

Amendment 1: -Freedom of religion (Establishment & Free Exercise Clauses) -Freedom of speech -Freedom of press -Freedom of assembly -Right to petition	Amendment 7: Right to jury in civil trials
Amendment 2: Right to a militia/bear arms	Amendment 8: -Protection against excessive fines and bail -Protection against cruel and unusual punishment
Amendment 3: Protection against quartering of soldiers (privacy?)	Amendment 9: Above rights are not a complete list; the people retain many more rights (privacy?)
Amendment 4: Protection against unreasonable searches and seizures (warrants obtained through probable cause) (privacy?)	Amendment 10: Powers not granted in the Constitution are reserved for the states (states' rights?)
Amendment 5: -Right to a grand jury -Protection against double jeopardy -Protection against self-incrimination -Guarantee of "due process of law"	Amendment 14: -All born in the United States are citizens -No state can deprive citizens of equal protection of the laws -No state can deprive citizens of due process of law -Privileges and immunities of citizens are protected in all states
Amendment 6: -Right to jury trial in criminal prosecutions -Right to confront witnesses and have witnesses on own behalf -Right to counsel (lawyer)	