

Native American Resistance

A. KEY TERMS

Match the descriptions in Column I with the terms in Column II.

Column I

- _____ 1. agreement Native Americans were forced to accept after the Battle of Fallen Timbers
- _____ 2. area set aside for Native Americans who lost their homelands
- _____ 3. process by which people of one culture become part of another culture
- _____ 4. military encounter between Governor Harrison and Tenskwatawa

Column II

- a. assimilation
- b. Battle of Tippecanoe
- c. Treaty of Greenville
- d. reservation

B. MAIN IDEAS

Write the letter of the correct ending in the blank provided.

- _____ 5. After the War for Independence, the Miamis, Delawares, and Shawnees were able to
 - a. fight successfully against American expansion.
 - b. negotiate fair treaties that allowed them to keep their ancestral lands.
 - c. relocate to rich lands west of the Ohio River.
 - d. convince the American government to limit westward expansion.
- _____ 6. After his defeat by the Americans, Little Turtle
 - a. plotted a Native American uprising.
 - b. adopted parts of American culture.
 - c. returned to his cultural roots.
 - d. moved his people to the Pacific coast.
- _____ 7. Handsome Lake stabilized Seneca society by urging his people to
 - a. reject all Seneca traditions.
 - b. blend Seneca and European cultures.
 - c. develop ties with France.
 - d. follow Christianity.
- _____ 8. Tenskwatawa called for the Miamis, Delawares, and Shawnees to
 - a. adopt European ideas about land.
 - b. relocate to Spanish territory.
 - c. completely reject European culture.
 - d. reject Native American culture.
- _____ 9. Tecumseh led the protest to the Treaty of Fort Wayne in which Native Americans
 - a. were given Florida swamp land.
 - b. were tricked into giving up their land.
 - c. were forced into Canada.
 - d. were marched to Oklahoma.
- _____ 10. The Battle of Tippecanoe resulted in
 - a. a devastating defeat for Harrison and his forces.
 - b. a devastating defeat for Tenskwatawa and his warriors.
 - c. the death of both Tecumseh and Tenskwatawa.
 - d. a loss of Native American confidence.