

Please select five causes from the list below. Find from the remaining entries two effects for each cause.

1. Farmers grew surpluses of food.
2. Warfare became common.
3. People in early cities believed that gods and goddesses controlled the forces of nature.
4. More people used metal implements.
5. Some people did not have to farm. They could be artisans.
6. Taxes could be recorded.
7. Early cities competed for scarce resources.
8. Priests became community leaders - priest/kings.
9. The use of bronze spread.
10. A system of writing developed.
11. Population of farming villages increased. Villages grew into cities.
12. Military men replaced priests as kings.
13. Organized religion became important in community life.
14. Jewelry-making became an art.
15. Priests needed to keep accurate records.